Are you crazy?

'In medias ris' is a Latin phrase that literally means "in the middle of things" and that is exactly what 8th graders are-in the middle of things. They are in the middle of competition; in the middle of achievement; and sometimes in the middle of trouble. Next year, however, these middle-schoolers will start at the bottom of the high school ladder as Freshmen; but let's be optimistic; there's nowhere to go but up and that beats being in the middle.

Coach Wyatt doing what he does best!

Another great year for the Varsity football team. The players not only learned about football, they learned organization and skills that will help them throughout their lives. As you can see from the production of the team and the all-stars that come every year, the coaching staff has got a good program going and will continue in the upcoming years.

Michael Carter, our one man golf team, faired extremely well in the first year of P. H. S. golf. That is if you call 1st place in the B. D. D., 5th place in Region D, and 9th place in the state doing pretty well! At the same time Mike was playing football he took the time to play golf and represent the school in the best way possible, he even faced the consequence of making up practice just to go play in the tournament. Congratulations Michael on all that you have achieved and good luck in the pros!!!

OUTREACH ANALYSIS

We are responsible for children who put chocolate fingers everywhere, who like to be tickled, who stomp in puddles and ruin their new pants, who sneak popsicles before supper, who erase holes in math workbooks, who can never find their shoes.
But we are also responsible for those who stare at photographers from behind broken windows, who can't bound down the street in a new pair of sneakers, who never "counted potatoes," who are born in places where we wouldn't be caught dead, who never go to the circus, who live in a x-rated world.
We are responsible for children who bring us sticky kisses and fistfuls of dandelions, who sleep with the dog and bury goldfish, who hug us in a hurry and forget their lunch money, who cover themselves with Band-aids and sing off key, who squeeze toothpaste all over the sink, who slurp their soup.
who never get dessert, who have no safe blanket to drag behind them, who watch their parents watch them suffer, who can't find any bread to steal, who don't have any rooms to clean up, whose pictures aren't on anybody's dresser, and whose monsters are real.
who spend all their allowance before Tuesday, who throw tantrums in the grocery store and pick at their food, who like ghost stories, who shove dirty clothes under the bed, and never rinse out the tub, who get visits from the tooth fairy, who don't like to be kissed in front of the carpool, who squirm in church and scream in the phone, whose tears we sometimes laugh at and whose smiles can make us cry, And we are responsible for those whose nightmares come in the daytime, who will eat anything,
who have never seen a dentist, who aren't spoiled by anybody, and who go to bed hungry and cry themselves to sleep, who live and move, but have no being.
We are responsible for children who want to be carried and for those who must, for those we never give up on and for those who don't get a second chance.
For those we smother...and for those who will grab the hand of anybody kind enough to offer it.
